Re: MUR 6734

Dear Mr. Jordan:

I am writing in response to a complaint filed with the Federal Election Commission (the "FEC") against Mr. Timothy Travis, among others, for alleged violation of Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971. According to the complaint, Mr. Travis contributed $58,650 to federal candidates during the 2011-2012 election cycle, $12,450 over the applicable limit. By a letter dated June 4, 2013, we informed you that we were taking steps to obtain refunds from the recipients of contributions made by Mr. Travis to certain federal candidates in order to bring Mr. Travis' total contributions for the 2011-2012 cycle under the applicable limit.

This letter is to notify you that we have obtained the necessary refunds, in the amount of $12,500, from the candidate committees, and Mr. Travis' total contributions for the 2011-2012 cycle are now in full compliance with the applicable limit. Enclosed are the copies of the checks received from the candidate committees evidencing the refunds. We hope that this corrective action has fully addressed the issues raised in the complaint against Mr. Travis, and no further action by the FEC will be necessary. Please contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

ROTHGERBER JOHNSON & LYONS LLP
